27 SECTION 3. Arkansas Code Title 12, Chapter 15, is amended to add an

29

30 Subchapter 4 – The Arkansas Red Flag Law

31

32 12-15-401. Title.

33 This subchapter shall be known and may be cited as the "Arkansas Red 34 Flag Law".

35

36 12-15-402. Legislative intent.

1 The intent of this subchapter is to provide for a restriction of access 2 to a firearm for a person who has demonstrated that he or she poses a risk of 3 imminent personal injury to himself, herself, or to another person while 4 providing the person with due process to contest the restriction if the 5 person can show that he or she does not pose a risk of imminent personal 6 injury to himself, herself, or to another person. Further, the General 7 Assembly intends to provide for the return of any firearm taken into custody 8 to the person from whom the firearm was taken either after a definite period 9 of time or after the person has shown that he or she no longer poses a risk 10 of imminent personal injury to himself, herself, or to another person.

11
12 12-15-403. Sworn affidavit required.

13 (a) Any two (2) certified law enforcement officers may swear under 14 oath by affidavit to a district court judge or circuit court judge that 15 probable cause exists to believe that:

16 (1) A person poses a risk of imminent personal injury to 17 himself, herself, or to another person;

18 (2) The person possesses one (1) or more firearms; and 19 (3) The firearm or firearms are in or at any place or thing, or 20 are possessed by the person.

21 (b) The certified law enforcement officers shall not swear under oath 22 by affidavit unless the certified law enforcement officers have conducted an 23 independent investigation and have determined that probable cause exists as 24 described in subsection (a) of this section and that there is no reasonable 25 alternative available to prevent the person from causing imminent personal 26 injury with a firearm to himself, herself, or to another person.

27
28 12-15-404. Issuance of emergency risk protection order and warrant by 29 judge – Grounds and findings.

30 (a) A district court judge or circuit court judge may only issue an 31 emergency risk protection order and warrant under this subchapter if the 32 sworn affidavit under § 12-15-403 establishes the required grounds for 33 issuing the emergency risk protection order and warrant.

34 (b) In determining whether grounds for the emergency risk protection 35 order and warrant exist or whether there is probable cause to believe the 36 grounds exist, the district court judge or circuit court judge shall consider

1 any recent:

2 (1) Threat or act of violence by the person directed toward 3 another person; and

4 (2) Threat or act of violence by the person directed toward 5 himself or herself.

6 (c) When evaluating under this section whether the recent threat or 7 act of violence constitutes probable cause to believe that the person poses a 8 risk of imminent personal injury to himself, herself, or to another person, 9 the district court judge or circuit court judge may consider other factors, 10 including without limitation:

11 (1) The reckless use, display, or brandishing of a firearm by 12 the person;

13 (2) A history of the use, attempted use, or threatened use of 14 physical force by the person against another person;

15 (3) Prior involuntary confinement of the person in a mental 16 health facility, crisis intervention unit, or medical facility where the 17 person received treatment for a mental health condition; and 18 (4) The illegal use of a controlled substance or abuse of 19 alcohol by the person.

20 (d)(1) If the district court judge or circuit court judge is satisfied 21 that grounds for the emergency risk protection order and warrant exist or 22 that there is probable cause to believe that the grounds exist, the district 23 court judge or circuit court judge shall issue an emergency risk protection 24 order and warrant naming or describing the person, place, or thing to be 25 searched, and what thing or things shall be seized or otherwise taken into 26 custody.

27 (2) If the search results in the discovery of a firearm
28 possessed by the person who has been shown to pose a risk of imminent 29 personal injury to himself, herself, or to another person, the law 30 enforcement agency conducting the search shall take the firearm into custody.

31
32 12-15-405. Orders contained in emergency risk protection order and 33 warrant.

34 An emergency risk protection order and warrant issued under this 35 subchapter shall:

36 (1) Be directed to any certified law enforcement officer;

1 (2) State the grounds or probable cause for issuance of the 2 emergency risk protection order and warrant;

3 (3) Command the certified law enforcement officer to immediately 4 search the person, place, or thing named in the emergency risk protection 5 order and warrant for any firearm; and 6 (4) Order the certified law enforcement officer to take any 7 firearm located or discovered into the certified law enforcement officer's 8 custody.

9
10 12-15-406. Filing application and supporting documents.

11 (a) An applicant for an emergency risk protection order and warrant 12 issued under this subchapter shall file a copy of the application for the 13 emergency risk protection order and warrant and all affidavits upon which the 14 emergency risk protection order and warrant are based with the clerk of the 15 district court or circuit court, as applicable, no later than the next 16 business day following the execution of the emergency risk protection order 17 and warrant.

18 (b) Before the execution and return of an emergency risk protection 19 order and warrant issued under this subchapter, the clerk of the district 20 court or circuit court, as applicable, shall not disclose any information 21 pertaining to the application for the emergency risk protection order and 22 warrant or any affidavits upon which the emergency risk protection order and 23 warrant are based.

24 (c) An emergency risk protection order and warrant issued under this 25 subchapter shall be executed and returned with reasonable promptness 26 consistent with due process of law and shall be accompanied by a written 27 inventory of all firearms taken into custody.

28
29 12-15-407. Copy of emergency risk protection order and warrant to be 30 given to named person.

31 A copy of an emergency risk protection order and warrant issued under 32 this subchapter shall be given to the person named in the emergency risk 33 protection order and warrant together with a notice informing the person that 34 he or she has the right to a hearing under this subchapter and the right to 35 be represented by an attorney at the hearing.

36

1 12-15-408. Hearing required.

2 (a)(1)(A) No later than three (3) days after the execution of an 3 emergency risk protection order and warrant issued under this subchapter, a 4 court with jurisdiction shall hold a hearing to determine whether any firearm 5 taken into custody should be returned to the person named in the emergency 6 risk protection order and warrant or should continue to be held by the state.

7 (B) The period of three (3) days under subdivision
8 (a)(1)(A) of this section does not include a Saturday, Sunday, or holiday.

9 (2)(A) A hearing is not required under this section if the 10 person from whom the firearm was taken into custody voluntarily forfeits 11 possession and ownership of the firearm.

12 (B)(i) A firearm voluntarily forfeited under this 13 subsection shall be held for thirty (30) days pending a claim of ownership of 14 the firearm by another person, during which time the person claiming 15 ownership may file a petition in a court with jurisdiction to determine 16 whether or not the person claiming ownership is the true owner of the 17 firearm.

18 (ii) In a hearing to determine the true ownership of 19 a firearm under this subdivision (a)(2)(B), the prosecuting attorney shall 20 represent the law enforcement agency that has custody of the firearm.

21 (iii) There is no filing fee required to file a 22 petition under this subdivision (a)(2)(B).

23 (iv) The court in which a petition is filed under 24 this subdivision (a)(2)(B) shall return the firearm to the petitioner if the 25 petitioner can show he or she is the true owner of the firearm by a 26 preponderance of the evidence.

27 (C) If after thirty (30) days a petition claiming 28 ownership of the firearm has not been filed in a court with jurisdiction or 29 if after a hearing on a petition the court with jurisdiction has determined 30 that the petitioner has not proven true ownership of the firearm, the law 31 enforcement agency that took the firearm into custody shall within forty-32 eight (48) hours destroy the firearm.

33 (b) At a hearing under this section, the state has the burden of 34 proving all material facts by clear and convincing evidence.

35 (c)(1)(A) If, after a hearing under this section, the court finds by 36 clear and convincing evidence that the person from whom a firearm was taken

1 into custody poses a risk of imminent personal injury to himself, herself, or 2 to another person, the court may order that a firearm taken into custody 3 under this subchapter continue to be held by the state for a period not to 4 exceed one (1) year.

5 (B) The person from whom the firearm was taken into 6 custody may petition the court for the return of the firearm before the one-7 year period of time has elapsed under § 12-15-410.

8 (2) If the court does not find by clear and convincing evidence 9 that the person poses a risk of imminent personal injury to himself, herself, 10 or to another person, the court shall order the firearm taken into custody to 11 be returned to the person named in the emergency risk protection order and 12 warrant.

13 (d)(1) If the court finds that the person whose firearm has been taken 14 into custody poses a risk of imminent personal injury to himself, herself, or 15 to another person, the court shall give notice to the prosecuting attorney 16 and local law enforcement agencies with jurisdiction that the person may be 17 in need of mental health services or other medical treatment.

18 (2)(A) Upon receiving notice under this subsection, the 19 prosecuting attorney may institute commitment proceedings under § 20-47-201 20 et seq. or § 20-64-801 et seq. if the prosecuting attorney has not done so 21 already.

22 (B) The findings of the court conducting a hearing under 23 this section may form the required basis and factual predicate for any 24 subsequent commitment proceeding under § 20-47-201 et seq. or § 20-64-801 et 25 seq.

26
27 12-15-409. Transfer of firearm permitted.

3 (c) Upon notification in writing to the law enforcement agency, state 4 agency, court, or other entity holding the firearm taken into custody by the 6 ownership of the firearm was transferred, the law enforcement agency, state 7 agency, court, or other entity holding the firearm taken into custody shall 8 deliver within ten (10) days the firearm to the eligible person to whom 9 ownership of the firearm was transferred.

10 (d) Upon conviction an eligible person is guilty of a Class A 11 misdemeanor if he or she knowingly permits the person from whom the firearm 12 was taken under this subchapter to possess or have access to the firearm 13 after the transfer of ownership of the firearm within one (1) year of the 14 transfer of the firearm.

15
16 12-15-410. Early return of firearm taken into custody.

17 (a) A person who has had his or her firearm taken into custody under 20 (b) A person who has had his or her firearm taken into custody under 21 this subchapter may not:

22 (1) File a petition under this section more than two (2) times 23 within any twelve-month period; or

25 months have passed since the court found that at that time the person posed a 26 risk of imminent personal injury to himself, herself, or to another person 27 and ordered the firearm taken into custody.

28 (c)(1) There is no filing fee required for the first petition filed by 29 a person under this section as to a specific emergency risk protection order 30 and warrant taking the person's firearm into custody.

31 (2) For a second petition filed under this section as to a 32 specific emergency risk protection order and warrant taking the person's 33 firearm into custody, the filing fee shall be as otherwise provided by law.

34 (d)(1) A person may not file a petition under this section if at the 35 time of filing he or she:
