Bill Summary

(Note: This summary applies to this bill as introduced and does not reflect any amendments that may be subsequently adopted. If this bill passes third reading in the house of introduction, a bill summary that applies to the reengrossed version of this bill will be available at <http://leg.colorado.gov>.)

Section 1 of the bill makes legislative findings and declarations. Colorado's statutory homestead exemption exempts a portion of a homestead from seizure to satisfy a debt, contract, or civil obligation.

Section 2 increases the amount of the homestead exemption:

- From $75,000 to $300,000 if the homestead is occupied as a home by an owner of the home or an owner's family; and
- From $105,000 to $400,000 if the homestead is occupied as a home by an owner who is elderly or disabled, an owner's spouse who is elderly or disabled, or an owner's dependent who is elderly or disabled.

Section 3 expands the meaning of "homestead" to expressly include a "dwelling", and section 4 defines a dwelling as conventional housing and personal property that is actually used as a residence, including any vehicle, trailer, vessel, camper coach, mounted equipment, railway car, shipping or cargo container, or shed.

Section 5 increases the maximum amounts of existing exemptions from levy and sale under a writ of attachment or execution for certain types of property and creates new exemptions for:

- Firearms and hunting and fishing equipment;
- Economic impact payments;
- Health savings accounts; and
- Money placed into a life expectancy set-aside account or similar reserve fund, escrow, or impound account, which money is derived from reverse mortgage proceeds that are designated for specific uses.

Section 5 also recreates and increases an exemption for money in depository accounts.

Sections 5, 6, and 7 remove a requirement that a person must deposit child support payments in an account designated for the child and, with regard to child support payments and unemployment benefits, not commingle funds in order to claim an exemption for child support payments or an exemption for unemployment benefits.

1 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Colorado:

2 SECTION 1. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly

1 finds that:

2 (a) The recent rises in Colorado's population and home values
3 have made it more difficult for people to find affordable housing;

4 (b) This housing crisis affects a wide swath of the population,
5 putting more pressure on family budgets;

6 (c) The higher cost of housing has forced many of Colorado's
7 aging and less-wealthy individuals to reside in unconventional housing,
8 including tiny homes; recreational vehicles, campers, and other vehicles;
9 boats and other vessels; and other types of real and personal property;

10 (d) Unfortunately, individuals residing in such unconventional
11 housing do not enjoy protection from creditors under Colorado's
12 homestead exemption law because Colorado's definition of a "homestead"
13 applies to real property and to mobile homes, manufactured homes,
14 trailers, and trailer coaches but not to other types of unconventional
15 housing; and

16 (e) When creditors acquire and dispose of property that serves as 17 unconventional housing, the residents of such housing are often left
18 homeless.

19 (2) The general assembly also finds that:

20 (a) Section 1 of article XVIII of the state constitution requires the 21 general assembly to pass liberal homestead and exemption laws;

22 (b) Colorado courts have expressed a policy of broad and liberal
23 interpretation of the homestead exemption;

24 (c) In 1982, with the enactment of Senate Bill 82-27, and in 1983,
25 with the enactment of House Bill 83-1428, the general assembly
26 expanded the homestead exemption to apply to mobile homes and
27 manufactured homes, respectively;

1 (d) In 2000, with the enactment of Senate Bill 00-003, the general
2 assembly again expanded the homestead exemption to include trailers and
3 trailer coaches; and

4 (e) Nonetheless, in 2016, in the case of In re Romero, the United
5 States district court for the district of Colorado declined to interpret
6 Colorado's homestead exemption as applying to unconventional dwellings
7 and sleeping quarters that are not specifically described in the homestead
8 exemption statute.

9 (3) The general assembly also finds that:

10 (a) The original purpose of the homestead exemption was to
11 protect an amount of equity that is required to keep a roof over a family's 12 head;

13 (b) The increase in the cost of homes has left the current
14 homestead exemption outdated;

15 (c) For many individuals, home ownership is the cornerstone of
16 the American dream, yet as of November 5, 2021, the typical home value
17 in the United States is $316,368, according to Zillow, and this value is 18 seasonally adjusted and includes only the middle-price tier of homes;

19 (d) Of course, home values are not uniform across the country,
20 and in some states a typical home costs far more than the national
21 average. According to Zillow, the value of a typical single-family home
22 in Colorado is $442,766, which is higher than the national average as 23 reported by Microsoft's MS Money app.

24 (e) Based on these figures, Colorado's statutory homestead
25 exemption amount of $75,000 protects only about 17% of the value of the 26 typical Colorado home and about 24% for homeowners who are elderly
27 or disabled; and

1 (f) According to the Denver Metro Association of Realtors, the
2 median closing price of a home in the Denver metro area was $543,000
3 for November 2021.

4 (4) The general assembly therefore declares that it is in the best
5 interests of residents of the state for the general assembly to:

6 (a) Increase the amount of the homestead exemption;

7 (b) Expand the definition of "homestead" to expressly include a
8 broad range of real and personal property when such property is actually
9 used as a dwelling or place of residence;

10 (c) Increase the maximum amounts of existing exemptions for 11 depository accounts and certain types of property; and

12 (d) Create new exemptions for:

13 (I) Firearms and hunting and fishing equipment;

14 (II) Economic impact payments;

15 (III) Health savings accounts; and

16 (IV) Money placed into a life expectancy set-aside account or 17 similar reserve fund, escrow, or impound account, which money is 18 derived from reverse mortgage proceeds that are designated for specific 19 uses.

20 (e) Remove the requirement that a person not commingle funds in 21 order to claim an exemption for child support payments or unemployment
22 benefits.

23 SECTION 2. In Colorado Revised Statutes, amend 38-41-201 as 24 follows:
