AN ACT relating to redevelopment; revising provisions relating to the termination of certain redevelopment plans; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

1 Under existing law, a redevelopment plan adopted by a redevelopment agency
2 on or after January 1, 1991, must terminate not later than 30 years after the date on 3 which the original redevelopment plan was adopted. (NRS 279.439) This bill 4 provides that, if a redevelopment area includes real property conveyed by the 5 Federal Government which contains certain abandoned mine or milling facilities, a 6 redevelopment plan adopted on or after January 1, 1991, must terminate not later 7 than 45 years after the effective date of the conveyance of the land by the Federal 8 Government if: (1) within 15 years after the date on which the original 9 redevelopment plan was adopted, the State enters into one or more agreements, 10 with respect to the real property conveyed by the Federal Government, for mine 11 remediation and reclamation; and (2) before entering into any agreement for mine
12 remediation and reclamation, the State consults with the legislative body of the city 13 or county in which the redevelopment area is located.
